Dear Mr. Casey:

A sincere thank you for your most interesting, scholarly talk last night at the Beach Club.

I received this morning a number of telephone calls from persons who attended the Banquet who were most impressed with both the event and more specifically about your address. I must say frankly that I thought I knew a good deal about General Washington's intelligence networking during the Revolution. Your remarks clearly indicated that I am a rank novice.

Further, I was most impressed with [redacted] His advance work for you was done in an efficient, thorough and friendly way. During the affair, your security people were polite, courteous and seemed to have the entire situation well under control. All this was done in a most unobtrusive way.

My regards to you, your wife and Bernadette. I hope your evening with us was as enjoyable for you as it certainly was for us. Please know that if I may be of any service to you or the Agency in the future, I would feel most honored to assist in any way.

I am,

slg
